

Lesson 6

Heaven and Hell

In the Bible heaven and hell are spoken of as real places. Heaven is the place where God's throne is, where angels serve him, and where the saved go at death. Hell is a place of torment and is the place the unsaved go at death.

Hades and the Lake of Fire

The word hell actually describes two places. One is hades, the place where the unsaved go immediately at death. The other is called the lake of fire and is the place where the unsaved will be during eternity. The first, hades, is like a jail where a person accused of a crime is kept until his trial. The second, the lake of fire, is like a prison where he is sent after his trial.

The unsaved go to hell at death.

Luke 16:22-23:

And it came to pass, that the beggar _____, and was _____ by the _____ into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also _____, and was _____; And in _____ he _____ up his _____ being in _____, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

The unsaved will be cast into the lake of fire.
